

Briefing Document: C&C News - February 17, 2025*Source: Excerpt from "C&C News" by Jeff ChildersDate: February 17, 2025Main Themes:

- Widespread Social Security Fraud & Election Integrity Concerns: The central theme is the alleged discovery of massive fraud within the Social Security Administration (SSA), involving millions of "zombie" or nonexistent individuals receiving benefits. The author links this to potential election fraud, suggesting these phantom individuals are "voting Democrat."
- Media Cover-Up: Childers accuses the mainstream media of deliberately ignoring or downplaying the Social Security fraud story to protect the government and uphold a narrative that entitlement fraud is rare.
- Trump's Trolling & Media Overreaction: The author highlights an instance where Donald Trump posted a quote from the movie Waterloo, leading to a media frenzy accusing him of dictatorial tendencies. Childers argues this was a deliberate trap by Trump, exposing the media's bias.
- Shifting Narrative on Birthright Citizenship: Childers points to a New York Times op-ed that questions the interpretation of the 14th Amendment regarding birthright citizenship for children of illegal immigrants. He sees this as a sign that the legal foundation for birthright citizenship is weakening.
- Draining the Swamp & Government Job Losses: The author celebrates rising unemployment in Washington D.C., attributing it to Trump's efforts to shrink the government. He criticizes the perceived waste and inefficiency of the federal workforce.

Key Ideas & Facts:

- Social Security Fraud: In 2015, an SSA Inspector General report found 6.5 million active SSNs assigned to people aged 112 or older.
- In 2023, an expanded audit found 18.9 million active SSNs with birthdates of 1920 or earlier lacking a date of death.
- PEW Research reported only 80,000 living Americans aged 100+ in 2024, leaving a discrepancy of 18.8 million.
- The author claims Elon Musk posted a database count showing 398 million active SSNs, exceeding the U.S. population by +64 million.
- Quote: "Based on Elon's chart, the total count of active SSNs is 398 million. That means there are +64 million more active SSNs than the entire population of the United States (334 million)."
- Media Bias: The author argues the media ignored the SSA fraud reports in 2015 and 2023.
- Quote: "We understand the media's main job is not to expose, but to cover up government incompetence — and especially bury any news at all that might fuel legitimate concerns about election integrity."
- Trump & Napoleon: Trump posted the quote, "I did not 'usurp' the crown," sparking media accusations of dictatorial ambition.
- Quote: [Trump] "I did not 'usurp' the crown."
- Childers claims this was a reference to the movie Waterloo and a deliberate attempt to provoke the media.
- Birthright Citizenship: Trump issued an executive order ending birthright citizenship for certain children of illegal immigrants.
- A New York Times op-ed questioned whether the 14th Amendment automatically grants citizenship to children born to illegal immigrants.
- Quote: "Trump Might Have a Case on Birthright Citizenship."
- Government Job Losses: Unemployment in Washington, D.C., reportedly spiked by 36% in the week ending February 8.
- Quote: "Unemployment spikes in Washington, D.C., as Trump and Musk begin efforts to shrink the government."
- Childers encourages further cuts to the federal workforce.

Key Quotes Highlighting Tone & Perspective:

- On the Social Security scandal: "This scandal will be the Deep State's Waterloo."
- On the media: "We're the biggest suckers in human history."
- On draining the swamp: "Trump promised to drain the Swamp, and he meant it, this time. I'd only ask that he turn the draining machine up to 11."

Analysis & Implications:

- The author presents a highly partisan perspective, strongly supportive of Donald Trump and critical of Democrats, the media, and the "Deep State."
- The claims of widespread Social Security fraud and its link to election fraud are presented as fact, although require independent verification.
- The piece suggests a growing conservative movement to re-interpret the 14th Amendment and restrict birthright citizenship.
- The article reflects a desire for significant cuts to the federal government and a rejection of the existing political establishment.

convert_to_textConvert to source

NotebookLM can be inaccurate; please double check its responses.

Summary

This Coffee & Covid (C&C) news article from February 17, 2025, primarily focuses on a massive Social Security fraud scandal. The author, Jeff Childers, highlights reports indicating millions of "zombie" social security numbers assigned to individuals over 100 years old, far exceeding the actual number of living centenarians. Childers argues this discrepancy points to widespread fraud, potential election interference, and government incompetence, further accusing the media of downplaying the story. Additionally, the piece touches on Trump's online trolling and the media's reaction, as well as a New York Times op-ed suggesting Trump may have a valid legal argument against birthright citizenship, and increasing unemployment rates in Washington D.C. as Trump administration policies take hold.

Deep State's Waterloo: Social Security Scandal and Political Commentary

1 source

Jeff Childers' "Coffee & Covid" newsletter from February 17, 2025, alleges a massive Social Security fraud involving millions of "zombie" accounts, suggesting widespread government malfeasance and potential election irregularities. The author criticizes media outlets for downplaying the story and accuses the "Deep State" of a Waterloo-level scandal. Childers also analyzes media reactions to a Trump social media post, perceiving them as overblown and a trap the media willingly walked into. He highlights a New York Times op-ed questioning birthright citizenship, suggesting a shift in the Overton Window. Finally, the piece notes rising unemployment in Washington, D.C., framing it as a consequence of Trump's efforts to "drain the Swamp."

keepSave to note

copy_all

docs Add note

audio_magic_eraser Audio Overview school Briefing doc

list each source article and its author with a summary of each

- C&C NEWS  , February 17, 2025, by Jeff Childers<sup>1</sup>: This article discusses a number of topics including:

- A scandal involving a vast number of fraudulent Social Security numbers<sup>1</sup>.... The article claims that there are millions of more active SSNs than the entire population of the United States<sup>4</sup>.

- The media's reaction to a Trump tweet that quoted the movie Waterloo....

- An op-ed in the New York Times about birthright citizenship<sup>1</sup>....

- Unemployment trends in Washington, D.C.<sup>1</sup>....

- What the Church Needs to Know about Covid-19, August 29, 2021, by Jeff Childers<sup>9</sup>: This article is listed as an additional piece by the same author but the content is not summarized in the excerpt.

- C&C NEWS  , February 18, 2024, by Jeff Childers<sup>9</sup>: This article is listed as an additional piece by the same author but the content is not summarized in the excerpt.

- C&C NEWS  , August 20, 2023, by Jeff Childers<sup>10</sup>: This article is listed as an additional piece by the same author but the content is not summarized in the excerpt.

keep_pin Save to note

copy_all

thumb_up

thumb_down

Enumerate 80 key take away points from the source material . For each point gives a supporting sentences which explain and characterize the key point that it pertains to. Here are 80 key takeaway points from the source material, each with a supporting sentence:

- Fraudulent Social Security Numbers: Millions of active Social Security Numbers are assigned to people older than the oldest known living individuals<sup>1</sup>.

- Discrepancy in SSN Data: There's a significant difference between the number of active SSNs for people aged 100+ and the actual number of living Americans in that age group<sup>2</sup>.

- Potential for Fraud: The discrepancy in SSN data suggests the possibility of fraudulent activities such as receiving benefits, filing tax returns, and voting<sup>2</sup>....

- Media Downplaying: The media has historically downplayed or ignored the issue of fraudulent Social Security records<sup>4</sup>....

- Government Inaction: The Social Security Administration has been slow to address the problems identified in reports about fraudulent SSNs<sup>2</sup>.

- Scale of the Problem: The total count of active SSNs exceeds the entire population of the United States by a significant margins.

- "Zombie" Accounts: Millions of dead or nonexistent "Americans" appear to be on the books, potentially receiving benefits and voting<sup>3</sup>.

- Need for Overhaul: The scale of the Social Security fraud is so vast that it may require a complete system overhaul<sup>7</sup>.

- Deep State Scandal: The Social Security scandal could be a major turning point for the "Deep State"<sup>7</sup>.

- Trump's Napoleon Quote: A quote posted by Trump was interpreted by the media as suggesting he believes he is above the law<sup>7</sup>....

- Media Overreaction: The media's reaction to Trump's quote was seen as exaggerated and a misinterpretation of his intent<sup>9</sup>.

- Trump's Legal Compliance: Despite accusations, Trump generally follows the law<sup>10</sup>.

- Birthright Citizenship Debate: The New York Times published an op-ed questioning birthright citizenship for children of illegal immigrants<sup>10</sup>.

- 14th Amendment Interpretation: The meaning of "subject to the jurisdiction" in the 14th Amendment is a key issue in the birthright citizenship debate<sup>11</sup>.

- Historical Context of Citizenship: Citizenship was historically granted to those who owed allegiance to the U.S., not just anyone born there<sup>12</sup>.

- Shift in Overton Window: The publication of the NYT op-ed signals a shift in the debate around birthright citizenship<sup>13</sup>.

- Unemployment Increase in D.C: Washington, D.C., experienced a spike in unemployment, possibly due to efforts to shrink the government<sup>13</sup>.

- "Funemployment": During the Obama era, Nancy Pelosi used the term "funemployment" to describe people collecting unemployment benefits<sup>14</sup>.

- Government Job Growth During Pandemic: The federal workforce expanded during the pandemic while many Americans lost their jobs<sup>14</sup>.

- Sacrifice for the Common Good: Federal workers may now need to make sacrifices for the common good<sup>15</sup>.

- Draining the Swamp: Trump is committed to reducing the size and scope of the federal government<sup>16</sup>.

- Severance Opportunity: Federal workers were offered severance packages, but many did not accept them<sup>15</sup>.

- Personal Responsibility: Individuals are responsible for the consequences of their choices<sup>16</sup>.

- Call to Action: The author encourages readers to get involved and help spread the truth<sup>17</sup>.

- Social Security Fraud Impact: Fraudulent Social Security payments amount to a significant sum of money annually<sup>18</sup>.

- Government Accountability: Those responsible for overlooking the Social Security fraud should be held accountable<sup>18</sup>.

- Historical Context: Centuries of history are being made in minutes<sup>1</sup>.

-
- Discoveries: The article claims to have discovered the "Great Democrat Zombie Army"<sup>1</sup>.
-
- IG Report: In 2015, the Social Security Administration's Inspector General reported millions of active Social Security numbers were assigned to people aged 112 or older<sup>1</sup>.
-
- Expanded Audit: In 2023, an expanded audit looked at SSNs aged 100 and up, and found millions lacking a date of death<sup>1</sup>.
-
- PEW Research: Last year (2024), PEW Research reported there are only a small number of living Americans aged 100+<sup>2</sup>.
-
- Media's Role: The media's main job is to cover up government incompetence<sup>19</sup>.
-
- Corporate Media Narrative: Corporate media maintains that entitlement fraud is rare and overhyped<sup>19</sup>.
-
- DOGE: DOGE is reporting that the OIG canaries in the SSA mineshaft were woefully underreporting the problem<sup>20</sup>.
-
- Elon Musk's Post: Elon Musk posted a database count of active Social Security Numbers by age range<sup>20</sup>.
-
- Honor System: Apparently, we've been operating on the honor system this whole time<sup>6</sup>.
-
- Government Employees: It's just the latest reason they sneer at us and think we're stupid and gullibles.
-
- Neanderthal Conservatives: Those neanderthal conservatives will believe anything<sup>6</sup>.
-
- Biggest Suckers: We're the biggest suckers in human history<sup>6</sup>.
-
- Total Count of Active SSNs: Based on Elon's chart, the total count of active SSNs is 398 million<sup>6</sup>.
-
- Impossible Situation: It's totally impossible, at least under our current scientific understanding of human mortality<sup>3</sup>.
-
- Shadow Army: The diligent, hardworking, apolitical employees in the federal government appear to have diligently preserved a shadow army of dead or nonexistent "Americans" on the books<sup>3</sup>.
-
- Kafkaesque Apparatus: Just napalm the whole Kafkaesque apparatus and start over from scratch<sup>7</sup>.
-
- Trump's Troll: What gave media the vapors this time was a classic Trump troll in the form of an uncharacteristically short and muted single-sentence post<sup>7</sup>.
-
- Media's Sinister Hidden Meaning: Media had to project and to impute motives to discover Trump's sinister hidden meanings.
-
- Film Quote: Trump just appeared to be obliquely quoting the 1970 film Waterloo, directed by Sergei Bondarchuk<sup>8</sup>.
-
- Dictatorial Frenchman: In the film, the dictatorial frenchman Napoleon said he "did not 'usurp' the crown."<sup>8</sup>.
-
- Waterloo Clip: The article references a clip from the movie Waterloo<sup>9</sup>.
-
- Absurd Reaction: The media's absurd reaction was swift and totally deranged<sup>9</sup>.
-
- Führerprinzip Territory: We're getting into real Führerprinzip territory here<sup>9</sup>.
-
- Narrative-Smashing Op-Ed: On Saturday, no less than the New York Times ran a narrative-smashing op-ed headlined, "Trump Might Have a Case on Birthright Citizenship."<sup>10</sup>.
-
- Democrats' First Win: The Democrats' first 'win' against Trump is already crumbling<sup>10</sup>.
-
- Legal Ambush: Like Napoleon at Waterloo, they confidently stormed into battle, realizing too late they marched straight into a legal ambush<sup>10</sup>.
-
- Executive Order: On his first day in office, President Trump issued an executive order ending so-called birthright citizenship for certain children of illegal immigrants<sup>11</sup>.
-
- Democrats Sued: Democrats sued, wailing that his EO violated the 14th Amendment<sup>11</sup>.
-
- Plain Language: One of the judges claimed it "conflicts with the plain language of the 14th Amendment."<sup>11</sup>.
-
- Supreme Court: The Supreme Court has never held that children born to illegal immigrants are citizens<sup>21</sup>.
-
- Judicial Hand-Waving: But thanks to decades of judicial hand-waving and bureaucratic indifference, citizenship has been quietly doled out with all the discretion of Social Security numbers<sup>21</sup>.
-
- 14th Amendment's Purpose: The 14th Amendment's well-known purpose was to convey citizenship to children of freed slaves<sup>21</sup>.
-
- Constitutional Crisis: The 14th Amendment resolved the Constitutional crisis in Lincoln's favor<sup>21</sup>.
-
- Common Law History: The carefully considered article delved into the history of citizenship through the centuries<sup>12</sup>.
-
- Citizenship Status: Citizenship was for people who owed allegiance to the U.S., not just anyone who happened to be born here<sup>12</sup>.
-
- Undocumented Invaders: The 14th Amendment wasn't written to pass out citizenship to millions of undocumented invaders lacking loyalty to the country<sup>12</sup>.
-
- Bad News: This editorial's publication was a massive shift in the Overton Window, preparing the Times' readers for bad news<sup>13</sup>.
-
- Legal Scrutiny: The left's sacred cow of birthright citizenship is finally getting serious legal scrutiny<sup>13</sup>.
-
- Shakier Legal Foundation: The New York Times is already conceding ground means they know their side's legal foundation is much shakier than they've previously pretended<sup>13</sup>.
-
- Shrink the Government: Unemployment spikes in Washington, D.C., as Trump and Musk begin efforts to shrink the government<sup>13</sup>.
-
- Jobless Filings: Jobless filings in Washington, D.C., surged<sup>13</sup>.
-

Disastrous Obama-Era Economy: During the disastrous Obama-era economy, as jobs for people outside government crashed and burned<sup>14</sup>.

Generous Government Unemployment Benefits: The fossilized Speaker urged people collecting generous government unemployment benefits to spend time traveling, writing poetry, painting landscapes, and starting up NGO's<sup>14</sup>.

Sacrificing for the Common Good: Ordinary Americans lost our jobs and small businesses by the millions, we were constantly assured by our federal betters that we were sacrificing for the common good<sup>14</sup>.

Federal Workforce Metastasized: Meanwhile, the federal workforce metastasized, swelling like a taxpayer-funded tumor<sup>14</sup>.

Work From Home: Government workers got paid to 'work from home'—which meant collecting full salaries, grant payments, and dead grandmothers' Social Security checks between Netflix binges<sup>14</sup>.

Hardest Hit: Prepare for corporate media to circulate their perennial "hardest hit" sob stories<sup>15</sup>.

Guilt Manipulation: Don't fall for media guilt manipulation<sup>16</sup>.

Draining Machine Up to 11: Trump promised to drain the Swamp, and he meant it, this time<sup>16</sup>.

Delicious Installment: Swirl back around tomorrow morning for another delicious installment of Coffee & Covid's essential news and commentary<sup>16</sup>.

Join Up With C&C: Consider joining up with C&C to help move the nation's needle and change minds<sup>17</sup>.

Errata: The article includes an errata correcting a number<sup>18</sup>.

FedUpInOR: A commenter calculates the potential cost of fraudulent social security payments<sup>18</sup>.

Additional Articles: The excerpt also lists additional articles by Jeff Childers on various dates<sup>22</sup>....

keep_pinSave to note

copy_all
thumb_up
thumb_down

Enumerate 40 key word from the source material . For each word gives supporting sentences which define, explain and characterize the key word that it pertains to Here are 40 keywords from the source material, each with a supporting sentence that defines, explains, and characterizes the keyword:

Deep State: This scandal will be the Deep State's Waterloo, suggesting it represents a significant challenge or downfall for entrenched, allegedly secretive government elements<sup>1</sup>.

DOGE: DOGE is reporting that the OIG canaries in the SSA mineshaft were, if anything, woefully underreporting the problem, indicating DOGE is an entity or individual investigating and disclosing information about the Social Security Administration (SSA)<sup>2</sup>.

Zombies: Sixty-four million zombies, which refers to the impossible number of dead or nonexistent "Americans" potentially receiving benefits and voting<sup>3</sup>.

Funemployment: During the disastrous Obama-era economy, as jobs for people outside government crashed and burned, Nancy Pelosi infamously coined the term "funemployment," describing people collecting generous government unemployment benefits<sup>4</sup>.

Swamp: Trump promised to drain the Swamp, and he meant it, this time, referring to his commitment to reduce the size and scope of the federal government<sup>5</sup>.

Media: The media's absurd reaction was swift and totally deranged, highlighting the press's perceived overreaction and misinterpretation of events, specifically concerning Trump<sup>6</sup>.

Social Security Administration (SSA): In 2015, the Social Security Administration's Inspector General reported that 6.5 million active Social Security numbers were assigned to people aged 112 or older, pointing to the agency responsible for managing social security numbers and benefits<sup>7</sup>.

Birthright Citizenship: On Saturday, no less than the New York Times ran a narrative-smashing op-ed headlined, "Trump Might Have a Case on Birthright Citizenship," indicating the concept of automatic citizenship for those born in a country, which is being legally scrutinized<sup>8</sup>.

14th Amendment: Democrats sued, wailing that his EO violated the 14th Amendment, which provides, "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside," referencing the constitutional amendment at the center of the birthright citizenship debates<sup>9</sup>.

Election Integrity: We are scarred veterans of the post-Millennial period, and we understand the media's main job is not to expose, but to cover up government incompetence — and especially bury any news at all that might fuel legitimate concerns about election integrity, highlighting concerns that the media is trying to bury any news that might fuel legitimate concerns about election integrity<sup>10</sup>.

Fraud: The discrepancy in SSN data suggests the possibility of fraudulent activities such as receiving benefits, filing tax returns, and voting<sup>11</sup>.

Unemployment: Unemployment spikes in Washington, D.C., as Trump and Musk begin efforts to shrink the government, referring to the rise in the number of people without jobs in the specified area<sup>12</sup>.

Overton Window: This editorial's publication was a massive shift in the Overton Window, preparing the Times' readers for bad news, indicating a change in the range of ideas considered acceptable in public discourse<sup>12</sup>.

Executive Order: On his first day in office, President Trump issued an executive order ending so-called birthright citizenship for certain children of illegal immigrants, referring to a directive issued by the president that has the force of law<sup>9</sup>.

Media Bias: We are scarred veterans of the post-Millennial period, and we understand the media's main job is not to expose, but to cover up government incompetence, suggesting the presence of media bias in covering government affairs<sup>10</sup>.

Voter Fraud: And of course, these immortal individuals are probably also voting and voting Democrat, suggesting that millions of mysterious perennial people are voting, raising concerns about voter fraud<sup>11</sup>.

Bureaucrats: I, for one, thank the gods of bureaucrats for all the hardworking, non-biased, non-partisan federal workers in the Social Security Administration who concluded, probably right after their 3-mimosa-lunch (held by Zoom), that it was just too hard and too expensive to stop 18.9 million fraudulent social security records by putting a presumed date of death into the date field, characterizing government employees as potentially inefficient or indifferent<sup>13</sup>.

Napoleon: What gave media the vapors this time was a classic Trump troll in the form of an uncharacteristically short and muted single-sentence post, which hearkens back to Napoleon and suggests the media overreacted to a historical reference<sup>14</sup>.

Troll: What gave media the vapors this time was a classic Trump troll in the form of an uncharacteristically short and muted single-sentence post, indicating that Trump's post was intended to provoke a reaction<sup>1</sup>.

Narrative: Prepare for corporate media to circulate their perennial "hardest hit" sob stories, indicating the corporate media often presents a consistent narrative<sup>15</sup>.

Entitlements: That narrative, after all, is as timeless as the millions of zombified centenarian recipients, referring to government entitlement programs, and implying potential fraud<sup>10</sup>.

C&C: Swirl back around tomorrow morning for another delicious installment of C&C's essential news and commentary, referring to the source of the news and commentary<sup>5</sup>.

Truth Social: In no way, of course, did Trump's post suggest doing anything illegal or unconstitutional, he posted it everywhere, on Truth Social, on X, and it was re-tweeted on the official White House Twitter account, it simply said, which is referencing a social media platform where Trump posted<sup>1</sup>.

X: In no way, of course, did Trump's post suggest doing anything illegal or unconstitutional, he posted it everywhere, on Truth Social, on X, and it was re-tweeted on the official White House Twitter account, it simply said, which is referencing a social media platform where Trump posted<sup>1</sup>.

NYT: On Saturday, no less than the New York Times ran a narrative-smashing op-ed headlined, "Trump Might Have a Case on Birthright Citizenship", referencing a major news publication<sup>8</sup>.

Media Cover-Up: We are scarred veterans of the post-Millennial period, and we understand the media's main job is not to expose, but to cover up government incompetence, and especially bury any news at all that might fuel legitimate concerns about election integrity, indicating that the media actively conceals governmental failings<sup>10</sup>.

Kafkaesque: Just napalm the whole Kafkaesque apparatus and start over from scratch, characterizing the system as complex, frustrating, and illogical<sup>3</sup>.

Fraudulent Social Security Records: In 2015, apart from one-offs in some conservative media (Breitbart, Washington Times, Fox), I could only find a single AP story about the 6.5 million fraudulent Social Security records aged 112+, indicating that there were fake social security records<sup>16</sup>.

Birthright: Democrats sued, wailing that his EO violated the 14th Amendment, which provides, "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside." On his first day in office, President Trump issued an executive order ending so-called birthright citizenship for certain children of illegal immigrants, which refers to the legal concept of granting citizenship to individuals born within a country's borders, regardless of their parents' immigration status<sup>9</sup>.

Draining the swamp: Trump promised to drain the swamp, and he meant it, this time, indicating a commitment to removing corruption and inefficiency from the governments<sup>5</sup>.

Non-Partisan: The author criticizes the Social Security Administration, questioning whether its employees are indeed "non-partisan"<sup>13</sup>.

Misleading: Speaking of French dictators, consider yesterday's UK Guardian's breathlessly misleading article headlined, "Trump suggests he's above the law with ominous Napoleon quote.", characterizing that some articles are misleading<sup>1</sup>.

Overwrought: Another reason the overwrought 'dictator' charges keep falling flat is because Trump keeps following the law, describing the dictator charges as overwrought<sup>3</sup>.

Illegitimate: This editorial's publication was a massive shift in the Overton Window, preparing the Times' readers for bad news, describing that the legal foundation is much shakier than they've previously pretended relating to illegitimate individuals<sup>12</sup>.

Nepotism: The article does not directly mention "nepotism," but the references to government workers potentially abusing their positions could be related<sup>4</sup>....

Lobbying: The article does not directly mention "lobbying," but the references to the "Deep State" and powerful interests influencing government could be related<sup>1</sup>.

Red Tape: Just napalm the whole Kafkaesque apparatus and start over from scratch, this reflects a desire to eliminate bureaucratic "red tape"<sup>3</sup>.

Accountability: Those responsible for overlooking the Social Security fraud should be held to account, calling for those who didn't act to be accountable for their actions<sup>17</sup>.

Misinformation: The media's absurd reaction was swift and totally deranged, which often spreads misinformation<sup>6</sup>.

Discrimination: The article does not directly mention "discrimination," although discrimination may result based on ones political preference within their career<sup>4</sup>....

keep_pinSave to note

copy_all
thumb_up
thumb_down

send

1 source

chevron_right

Why does the author call it funemployment?